Kemet Klub Maiken M. King

The Heqanakht Letters

Letter IV

means ‘phrase’ in this context.

sɜt ḏdt n mwt=s sɜt-nb-sḫtw

A daughter who speaks to her mother, Satnebsekhtu, ḏdt n sɜt-nb-sḫtw ḫɜ n who speaks to Satnebsekhtu: A thousand smdt m nḏ-ḫrt=ṯ m phrases of greeting in ꜥ.w.s. nfr=t ỉb=t nḏm(.w) snḏm life, prosperity and health. May you be good, and your heart in the state of being pleasant. May ḥwt-ḥr ỉb=t m rdỉ ỉb=t

Hathor make your heart pleasant. Do not fuss/worry

Verb construction: Negative imperative (‘do not do X’) ỉmỉ is the imperative form of rdỉ; used when the imperative is not negated.

m-sɜ=ỉ m.ṯ wỉ snb.kw about me. Look, I am healthy.

Verb construction: Subject-stative m.ṯ ỉr ỉnnt nbt n

Look, concerning everything which is brought to

Verb construction: ỉnnt is the passive participle of the verb ‘to bring’

nfr-ɜbd m ṯn-r ỉw

Neferabed as a reminder/memorandum/payment ỉnt n=ṯ mỉtt ỉr ḥnᶜ what which is brought to you (is) the same. In addition, nḏ-ḫrt grg m ꜥ.w.s.

greeting (to) Gereg in life, prosperity and health.

m.ṯ rdì.n=ì ỉwt sȝ-ḥwt-ḥr

Look, I caused the coming of Sa-Hathor

r sìpt=ṯ m rdì ꜥm-ìb to check on you. Do not allow the neglect/forgetfulness n grg ḥnꜥ nḏ-ḫrt of Gereg. And greetings

r pr ꜣw=f ꜥ.w.s.

to the whole household (life, prosperity and health).

Letter II

Allen translates  as ‘the white of his eyes’. The term can be translated as ‘here’.

sꜣ=ỉ ḏd n mwt=f ḥm-k=ỉ

A son who speaks to his mother, the Ka-Servant

ḥḳꜣ-nḫt n mwt=f ỉpỉ n ḥtpt

Heqanakht, to his mother Ipi, (and) to Hetepet:

ỉw ṯn mỉ ỉḫ n ꜥ.w.s.=ṯn

How are you, in your l.p.h., m ḥst nt mnṯw nb wɜst through/in/by the favour of Montu, Lord of Waset/Thebes?

n pr r-ḏr=f ỉw ṯn mỉ

(And) to the entire household: How are you, ỉḫ sp-sn n ꜥ.w.s.=ṯn m rdỉ how are you in your l.p.h.? Do not ỉb=ṯn m-sɜ=ỉ m.ṯn wỉ worry about me. Look, I snb.kw ʿnḫ.kw m.ṯn ṯn am healthy and alive. Look, you (are) m pɜ wnm r sɜ=f

as the one who eats until he sates ḥḳr r bɜḫt ỉrty=fy m.ṯn hunger to the white of his two eyes. Look, tȝ r-ḏr=f mwt(.w) n

the entire land is dead;

ḥḳr=ṯn m.ṯn ỉỉ.n=ỉ mỉnȝ

(but) you have not hungered/starved. Look, I came here m hnt ỉr.n=ỉ ꜥḳw=ṯn travelling south, (after) I had made your provisions r nfr ỉn grt ỉw ḥꜥpy to perfection. Moreover, (was/is) the Nile/inundation ꜥ3 wrt m.ṯn ỉrw n=n

very great? Look,

ꜥḳw=n r ḳd n ḥꜥpy

our provisions/rations have been made for us according to the nature of the inundation, Allen translates the obscure phrase as 'which one and all bear'.

wḫd mỉ rnw m.ṯn pḥ.n=ỉ which is a pain for everyone. Look, I reached

Kemet Klub Maiken M. King

pꜣ hrw ỉm=ṯn ḥr sʿnḫ=ṯn the day with you, keeping you alive.

sš n ʿḳw n pr

Record of the rations/provisions of the household:

What follows next is a list of names and measures of grain. Allen counts as 0.8.

ỉpỉ 0.8 bꜣkt=s ḥtpt bꜣkt=s

Ipi: 0.8 (of a sack) – (and) her maidservant

Hetepet and her maidservant:

0.8 ḥt(i) sꜣ nḫt 0.8 ḥnꜥ

0.8 (of a sack)

Heti's son Nakht: 0.8 (of a sack), together with ẖrw=f mr-sw ẖrw=f

his dependents.

Mersu and his dependents sꜣ-ḥwt-ḥr 0.8 sꜣ-nb-nỉwt 0.7

Sahathor: 0.8 (of a sack)

Sanebniut: 0.7 (of a sack)

Kemet Klub Maiken M. King

ỉnpw 0.4 snfrw 0.4

Anubis: 0.4 (of a sack)

Sneferu: 0.4 (of a sack)

sꜣ-ỉnwt 0.4 mꜥy sꜣt

Sainut: 0.4 (of a sack)

May’s daughter

Allen counts as 0.3 ½.

ḥtpt 0.5 nfrt 0.3 ½

Hetepet: 0.5 (of a sack)

Nefret: 0.3 ½ (of a sack)

sꜣt-wrt 0.2 dmḏ r 7.9 ½

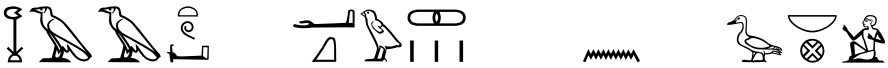
Satweret: 0.2 (of a sack)

A total of 7.9 ½ (of a sack)



ḫꜣꜣ.tw ʿḳw n sꜣ-nb-nỉwt

The rations/provisions of Sanebniut will be measured m mḥ ỉtỉ=f

as his barley in full.

wnn=f m ḫtw=f r

He/it will be with/amongst his things until/with regards to rwt=f r pr-hɜɜ

his leaving for Per-Haa.

Allen translates as ‘lest’.

ỉr sɜw ḳnd=ṯn ḥr nɜ

Beware, if you are angry about these (things)!

ḳnd=ṯn is probably the future sḏm=f.

m.ṯn pr r-ḏr=f

Look, the entire household mỉtt ḫrdw=ỉ ỉnk ḥt nb

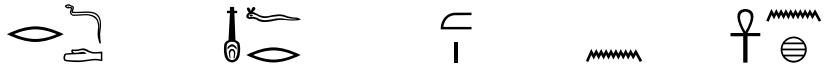
(are) like my children. I (am) everything.



r-ḏd nfr gs n ʿnḫ

(That is) to say, “Half of life (is) better r mwt m sp wʿ

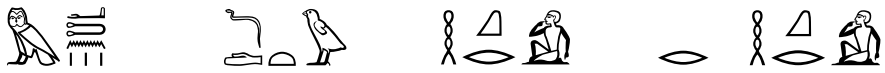
than death in a single instance”.



m.ṯn ḏd tw ḥḳr r ḥḳr

Look, one should say hunger (only) regarding (real) hunger.

ḏd tw is probably the future sḏm=f with an impersonal pronoun (‘one’).

m.ṯn šꜣꜥ.w wnm rmṯ

Look, they have started to eat people

Here we have a 3rd pl. stative followed by an infinitive.

The form seems to be a passive participle; the negation carries the meaning ‘there is no one who…

ꜥꜣ n ddw n=sn here. There is no one who is given pȝ ꜥḳw m st nbt

these rations in any place.

ỉn=ṯn n=ṯn m ỉb ḳn

You should be dutiful/brave/diligent

Verb type: Future sḏm=f r pḥt=ỉ m.ṯn ỉr=ỉ šmw until my arriving. Look, I will spend Shemu/Harvest/Summer

Verb types: Infinitive used as a noun; future sḏm=f ꜥ3 r-ḏd ỉn ḥm-k3

here. Spoken/communication by the Ka-priest ḥḳ3-nḫt n mr-sw n ḥty

Heqanakht Mersu (and) to Hety's

Allen translates  as 'subordinately'. He treats  as a variant of the future sḏm=f.

s3 nḫt ḫr-ꜥ dd=ṯn son Nakht, (his) subordinate: You should/will give pꜣ ꜥḳw n rmṯ=i

the provisions/rations to my people,

Allen translates as ‘mind you.

iw=sn ḥr irt kꜣt ꜥḥꜣ when they are doing work. Mind you/take care/be careful,

Verb type: ḥr + infinitive ṯn sp-sn ikn ꜣḫt=i nb

mind you/take care/be careful! Hoe all my land

Verb type: Imperative (ikn) nḳr.w m nḳr bɜ m tilled by tilling. Hack with

Verb types: Stative; infinitive; imperative šrt=ṯn m kɜt m.k ỉr your nose(s) in the work. Look, if ḳn=sn dwɜ.tw n=k nṯr

they are brave/strong, God will be praised for you.

Verb types: Conditional future sḏm=f; future sḏm.tw=f is a particle that functions as a type of negation, 'not at all', followed by a future sḏm=f.

nfr-ɜ dd=i wg n=ṯn

I will not at all give you (both/all) grief.

šɜʿ.tw grt m rdit pɜ

Now, one should begin giving the ʿḳw hɜb.n=i n=ṯn ḥr=f m rations, which I have sent (a letter) to you about, on/from is the name of a month; Egyptian months were usually named after religious festivals.

wpt-rᶜ n ḫnt-ḫtỉ-prty n the Opening Day of Khenty-Kheti-Perty (and) for Allen translates as 'each succeeding first of the month'.

wpwt-rᶜ n mɜwt m ᶜm the Opening Days of (each) new (month). Do not

Allen translates as 1.4.

ỉb=ṯn ḥr pɜ ɜḥt 1.4

forget about the 1.4 (arouras) of land

Allen reads as smt, 'pasturage'.

nty m smt rdi.n ỉp sꜣ

Commented [MM1]: The reading here is ambiguous.

which (are) pasturage/in cultivation, which Ip's son can be read as a noun, 'diligence'.

ḫnt-ḫ(t) ḥr ỉkn=f ḳnt sp-sn Khent-Kheti gave – regarding hoeing it: diligence, diligence!

m.ṯn ṯn ḥr wnm ꜥḳw=ỉ

Look, you are (all) eating my rations.

The noun probably means ‘possession’ in this context.

ỉr grt ḥnw nb n ỉnpw

Now, as for every/any possession of Anubis nty m ᶜ=k ỉmỉ n=f sw which (is) in your hand: give it to him.