

The Cairo Bowl

can be understood as an active masculine participle; the seated man acts as a determinative.

hr ih can be translated as 'why'.

