Terms and Conditions for the Kemet Klub Middle Kingdom Tour 2025 in-Egypt course

By reserving a place on our Middle Kingdom Tour, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and consent to the following:

1. The Kemet Klub (Ali Ball, Josie Newman and Bernadette Brady) are not acting as travel agents or tour operators and cannot be held liable as such. We have proposed a captivating itinerary available to our Kemet Klub friends and whilst we will make every effort to ensure your well-being during the trip, we are not liable for accidents, changes to the itinerary, or any unforeseen circumstances.
2. This is not a package holiday. You are responsible for arranging your own flights and you purchase the bundle of our in-Egypt travel which includes sites and accommodation, as shown in the itinerary, through Galal Alsenusy (Golden Gates Travel).
3. Your place is only reserved once you have completed the online booking form and sent your deposit to Galal Alsenusy – (See banking details which can be downloaded from the Booking Form and they will also be automatically emailed to you upon submitting your online Booking Form.)
4. The price quoted requires a minimum of 15 people to register for the tour. If this number is not achieved, you will receive a full refund of your deposit. Alternatively, there is a maximum of 24 places and if the tour is oversubscribed, we will have a waiting list based on a first-come, first-served basis.
5. Once the tour has reached the required numbers we will confirm with you via email. You are then responsible to book your own flight that will get you to Luxor ready for our tour to start early on 2nd December 2025.
6. Important: Please do NOT book your flight until you have heard that we have reached the minimum number. Neither the Kemet Klub nor Galal Alsenusy (Golden Gates Travel) are financially liable for your airfare.
7. The deposit of £700 GBP is non-refundable. (Except in the situation where we don't have enough people to run the trip, or if you pay just as the trip has filled up, in which case your deposit will be returned in full.)

8. You will arrange for the balance to be paid in full on or before Monday 15th of September 2025. Failure to pay by this date will result in the loss of deposit and your place will be offered to the first person on the waiting list.
9. You are responsible for ensuring that you are fit and well to travel and confirm that you have not been advised against travel for any medical reasons.
10. You recognise that the trip will include a fair amount of walking (sometimes on uneven surfaces), in the heat of the Egyptian sun. As we explore tombs and pyramids there can also be steps, tunnels and occasionally ladders to navigate. You confirm that you have a suitable level of fitness to cope with these challenges. (If you have any doubts, contact us before booking).
11. Be aware that whilst we have tried to balance the content of our days, at times the geography and logistics of the trip mean that there are occasional long coach journeys.
12. You must ensure that you have a fully valid passport to travel. Your passport should be valid for at least 6 months from the arrival date and should have at least one blank page.
13. Your entry visa to Egypt will be arranged and paid for by Galal's team, as part of your tour.
14. You agree to arrange your own comprehensive insurance (which includes medical repatriation) to cover you for the duration of the trip. Please bring this with you on your journey.
15. Occasionally it is necessary to make changes to the itinerary due to circumstances beyond our control, if this happens we will endeavour to arrange a substitute of a similar standard.
